For the Millions of Farmers, Gardeners, and Activists in Pursuit of Regenerative Global Health

Heart & Soil Magazine is committed to global regeneration and planetary health through farming and gardening.

Providing the best tips and techniques for today's farmers and gardeners to easily and regeneratively impact their farms, gardens, businesses, health, and communities.

Published bi-monthly and available digitally on the App Store, Google Play, and Magsfast.com.

Written for the expert, the activist, and the curious.

With a focus on soil, inputs, plants, food, and people, the Heart & Soil community is one of global experts, farmers, scientists, and gardeners.
