Wellcome to the livestock applied research organisation in France call l'Institut de l'Elevage".

Our national association is dealing with beef and dairy cattle, sheep, goat, horse breeding. We are working on technical, économi- cal and environmental issues. We produce references and tools to help farmers changing their practices into a sustainable and environmental freindly way.

If you want to know more about our activity, in Europe and world wide, please refer to our website. There are a lot of informations, free open acces. Here is the adress <http://idele.fr/>

Within this Green week and 4 for 1000 initiative I only focus on climat topic!

Please to meet you soon,

Hélène Chambaut- Institut de l'élevage-Angers, France
